Away, away in the North land,
Where the hours of the day are few,
And the nights are so long in winter
That they cannot sleep them through
Where they harness the swift reindeer
To the sledges, when it snows,
And the children look like bears cubs
In their funny, furry clothes.

- (i) Which place is the poet talking about?
- (ii) How are the days there during winter days?
- (iii) What makes children look like like bears?
- (iv) Find the word in the poem which means 'not many.'
